Quiz Questions with Answers

10 MCQs, correct option marked in green

1. The six C's of language discussed are clarity, colour, concreteness, correctness, conciseness, and cultural sensitivity.

(A) True ✓
(B) False

Answer: (A) True

2. Jargon, euphemism, and Newspeak are elements that help bring clarity to public speaking.

(A) True
(B) False ✓

Answer: (B) False

3. Christopher Turk's seven levers of persuasion are offered as tools to help speakers overcome anxiety and win over critics.

(A) True ✓
(B) False

Answer: (A) True

4. Critical thinking and creative thinking are identical and interchangeable.

(A) True
(B) False ✓

Answer: (B) False

5. George Yule, in his book The Study of Language, discusses the significance of linguistic context, also termed _____ in speech.

(A) Co-text ✓
(B) Syntax

Answer: (A) Co-text

6. Deictic Expressions refer to those bits of language which can be understood or interpreted only when the listener knows the _____ of the speaker.

(A) immediate context; especially the physical context ✓
(B) presupposition

Answer: (A) immediate context; especially the physical context

7. The chief objective of a workshop is to add to the expertise of every participant by _____.

(A) practical work and training for new products, policies, or ideas ✓
(B) by providing formal academic certification without practical activities

Answer: (A) practical work and training for new products, policies, or ideas

8. According to McCrae and Costa's Five Factor model, the personality trait of _____ is most highly correlated with creative thinking.

(A) Agreeableness
(B) Openness to experience ✓

Answer: (B) Openness to experience

9. Who propounded the linguistic relativity hypothesis?

(A) Aristotle and Descartes
(B) Sapir and Benjamin Lee Whorf ✓
(C) Roman Jacobson and S.I. Hayakawa
(D) Michael Osborne and Roy Peter Clark

Answer: (B) Sapir and Benjamin Lee Whorf

10. According to the lecture, which two components must creative thinking satisfy for ideas to be valuable?

(A) Originality and popularity
(B) Originality and functionality ✓
(C) Functionality and simplicity
(D) Simplicity and popularity

Answer: (B) Originality and functionality