PUBLIC SPEAKING

ASSIGNMENT XII, JULY-OCTOBER 2026

Full Marks: 10

I. Given below are some statements based on video lectures. Identify them and write (T) against True and (F) against False statements.

1. In a group interview, displaying individuality over team spirit is ideal when describing how colleagues perceive you. F
2. Advertising on social media should adhere to censorship procedures to maintain decorum in online interactions. T
3. The primary purpose of time stamping on social media is to identify the user who created the post. F
4. When discussing weaknesses in an interview, the candidate should present them as significant flaws. F
5. Privacy concerns in online communication arise due to the potential exposure of personal information on social media. T

II. Given below are multiple choice questions having four options. Select the most suitable option as your answer.

1. Which of the following best describes the role of the 'digital divide' in modern communication?

A) It separates online and offline advertisements

B) It refers to the gap created by unequal access to technology and the Internet

C) It defines the boundary between social media and news media

D) It describes the time difference between posting and receiving content online

2. Among the five determining factors of the digital divide, which of the following is NOT one of them?

A) Availability

B) Affordability

C) Appearance

D) Acceptability

3. In the STAR technique for situational interview responses, what does the letter 'S' stand for?

A) Summary

B) Situation

C) Strength

D) Skill

4. Which interview format involves one interviewee being assessed by multiple interviewers simultaneously?

A) Group Interview

B) Telephonic Interview

C) Panel Interview

D) Sectional Interview

5. Which famous speech was delivered by Swami Vivekananda in 1893 at the World's Parliament of Religions, introducing Hinduism, Vedanta, and Yoga to the Western world?

A) The Gettysburg Address

B) The Tilbury Speech

C) "I Have a Dream" Speech

D) The Chicago Address

******