ASSIGNMENT WEEK 5

Public Speaking

July - October 2026

Full Marks: 10

I. Given below are some statements based on video lectures. Identify them and write (T) against True and (F) against False statements. (Marks: 1*3)

1. Expressiveness, clarity, interaction, inclusiveness, and empathy are described as fundamental characteristics of effective lecturing. T
2. Freud is quoted as arguing that a person can keep all secrets through control of body language. F
3. Edward T. Hall coined the term proxemics and discussed it in his book The Hidden Dimension. T

II. Fill in the blanks with the suitable options given in brackets. (Marks: 1*3)

1. Violating someone's space (territory) can most likely trigger _____ (Increased comprehension/ Flight or fight response/ Anxiety/ Anger)
2. The term Kinesics was first introduced in the year _____. (1956/ 1952/1953/1950)
3. Dr. Desmond Morris describes the _____ gesture as an unconscious sign that a speaker might be lying or hiding something. (hand-to-face or mouth-guard/ leg scratching/ sweating/ eye-twitching)

III. Given below are multiple-choice questions with four options. Select the most suitable option as your answer. (Marks: 1*4)

1. Which of the following is NOT one of the classifications of time discussed in the lecture?

   A. Social time
   B. Psychological time
   C. Technological time
   D. Biological time

2. The lecturer cites Sachs to claim that touch is:

   A. A modern addition to communication
   B. The foundation for communication with the world

C. Less important than sight and hearing
D. Only relevant in intimate relationships

3. What term does Wright introduce to describe regimentation of people by time-keeping, and what warning does the lecturer give about it?

   A. Chronotopia — that it leads to creative freedom
   B. Chronarchy — that humans should use time, not be ruled by it
   C. Chronometer — that clocks are unreliable
   D. Chronology — that history dictates punctuality

4. What distance range did the lecture give for the intimate zone (approximate)?

   A. 12 to 25 feet
   B. 4 to 12 feet
   C. 1.5 to 0.45 meters (approx.)
   D. 6 to 18 inches